Ethnological Museum

Etnološki muzej Brodej

predstavlja zbirko vsakdanjih predmetov, orodij in pripomočkov, ki so jih nekoč uporabljali ljudje pri svojem delu in načinu življenja, na območju Pohorja in Paškega Kozjaka. Spoznajte kako so nekoč tkali lan, izdelovali cokle in šikle, ali pa kako so živelji gozdarji in kako so nekdaj na prav poseben način Pohorci klicali dež. Odkrijte nekdanje življenje skozi čudoviti svet tradicij in človeške iznajdljivosti ter se prepustite domačnosti in prekrasnim razgledom kmetije Brodej.

Ekološka kmetija, glamping in etnološki muzej Brodej še danes gospodujejo na istem posestvu kjer je nekoč stala stoletja stara kmetija Brodej. Od takrat so se nam ohranili orodje, stari stroji, prevozna sredstva, tudi vsakdanja posoda, pribor in razni pripomočki, ki so del etnološke zbirke, katera je nastajala, in se še dopolnjuje, zahvaljujoč zbirateljski vnemi in zanosu do ohranitve nekdanjih tradicij in kulturne dediščine pohorskega prostora.

Za ogled je potrebna predhodna najava. Vabljeni!

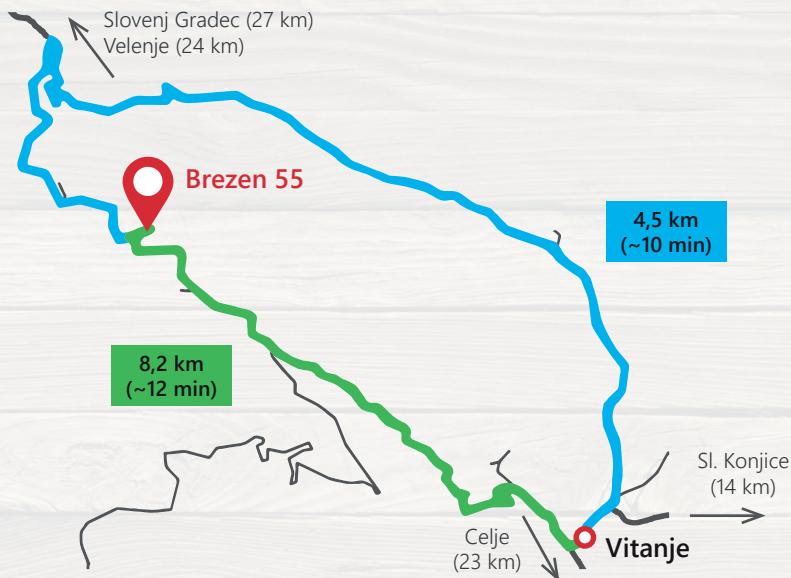

The Ethnological Museum Brodej presents a collection of everyday objects, tools and accessories that were once used by people in their way of life in the area of Pohorje and Paški Kozjak. Find out how they once wove linen, made clogs and wooden roof tiles, or how foresters lived and how the people of Pohorje used to summon rain in a very special way. Discover the former life through the wonderful world of traditions and human ingenuity and indulge in the familiarity and beautiful views of the Brodej farm.

The Brodej ecological farm, glamping and ethnological museum still dominate today on the same property where the centuries-old Brodej farm once stood. Since then, we have preserved tools, old machines, means of transport, as well as everyday dishes, utensils and various accessories, which are part of the ethnological collection that was created and is still being added to, thanks to the collecting zeal and enthusiasm for the preservation of former traditions and cultural heritage.

Advance notice is required for viewing. Welcome!
